Obituary

Dr Deoki Nandan left for his heavenly abode on 6th December, 2013. He was a renowned public health specialist, a member of the IndiaCLEN family and on the Editorial Board the Journal Clinical Epidemiology and Global Health. He was an enthusiastic researcher, astute academician and a generous friend and mentor to many. He was always ready to support and promote a just cause.

Through out his illustrious career, he served as Chairman, Uttar Pradesh Secondary Education Service Selection Board, Chancellor of Santosh University, Ghaziabad, Director of National Institute of Health & Family Welfare, New Delhi and Principal/Dean & Chief of Hospital, S N Medical College, and Agra. He had also worked as consultant in many international Organizations e.g. WHO-SEARO, UNICEF, CARE-India, EPOS, Population Council, MOST-India and USAID. He was member of many state level committees and National Technical Expert Committees specifically for AIDS, IMCI and Child Health. He participated in many IndiaCLEN network projects.

His demise has left a void in the field of Public Health. IndiaCLEN family pays homage to him. May his soul rest in peace.
